Director of AYYTL*

AYTL offers an affordable and enjoyable way for young players to learn tennis in a fun, no-pressure environment. The program is designed for both beginners and intermediate players, focusing on skill development, teamwork, and fostering a lifelong love of the game, rather than pure competition.

"Our goal is to make tennis accessible and enjoyable for every child," said Andras Bori, Executive Director of AYTL. "We're about more than forehands and backhands—our league is about boosting confidence, community, and having fun."

Practices and matches will both be held weekly at Oak Valley Middle School in Poway, with coaches leading engaging drills and friendly match play. Early bird pricing for the Spring 2026 Recreational League is just $265 for the full 10-week season.
