Local, Regional, and National Carriers to Attend, Offering On-Site Interviews and Pre-Hires

The Open House & Career Fair invites the public, prospective students, and local partners to tour the training facility, step inside late-model trucks, and meet with the school's Admissions and Financial Aid teams.

An Open House is the best way to truly understand what CDL training is about”

Sean Williams, President

Attendees can also meet recruiters from more than fifteen (15) local, regional, and national trucking companies who will be conducting on-site interviews and pre-hiring qualified candidates. The event is Open to the Public, and attendees are encouraged to bring their friends and families.

“An Open House is the best way to truly understand what CDL training is about,” said Sean Williams, President of Southwest Truck Driver Training. “Visitors can meet our instructors, explore the equipment, and experience the hands-on, supportive culture that makes SWTDT a leader in professional driver education.”

The event regularly attracts over 100 attendees each year, bringing together students, employers, and community partners to showcase the wide range of career opportunities in professional truck driving, one of Arizona's fastest-growing skilled trades.

A Career Fair Connecting Students and Future Truck Drivers to Employers

"Southwest Truck Driver Training has been helping Arizonans launch successful truck driving careers for more than two decades," said Steve Strong, VP of Administration "Our annual Open House & Career Fair connects students directly with employers and the support systems that make CDL training accessible and affordable."
