November 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Great American Self Storage of Fort Myers is pleased to announce the appointment of Richard DeNezza, LCAM, as the facility's new Property Manager. With more than a decade of experience in property, operations, and community management, DeNezza brings a strong background in leadership, customer service, and operational excellence to the Fort Myers team.

Great American Self Storage of Fort Myers

Before joining Great American Self Storage, DeNezza held key roles with Pacifica Residential, Royal Shell, Westdale Asset Management, and David Drye Company. Throughout his career, he has built high-performing teams, streamlined operations, and delivered exceptional customer experiences across both residential and commercial properties.

"I lead by example and believe in fostering a team culture built on collaboration, communication, and accountability," said DeNezza. "I'm excited to bring that same energy and focus to Great American Self Storage and to continue strengthening our connection with the Fort Myers community."

In his new role, DeNezza will oversee all aspects of property operations—including customer relations, leasing, maintenance, and staff development—while upholding Great American Self Storage's commitment to clean, secure, and friendly facilities.
