We are proud to be recognized at the federal level for what we've long believed” today announced that it has earned the HIRE Vets Medallion Award – Silver Level, a prestigious recognition from the U.S. Department of Labor. The award underscores the company's demonstrated commitment to recruiting, employing, and retaining veterans at the federal level.

Abby Reed, Human Resources Director.

“We are proud to be recognized at the federal level for what we've long believed: veterans bring unmatched experience, discipline, and dedication. This award encourages us to raise the bar further in how we support and include those who've served.”— Abby Reed, Human Resources Director.

Significance of the Award:

The HIRE Vets Medallion Award is currently the only federal-level award that formally honors organizations for veteran employment efforts. It assesses employers based on criteria including veteran recruitment, hiring, retention, professional development, and outreach. A formal award ceremony is scheduled for November 7, 2025.

Veterans Guardian's Veteran Employment Strategy:

Veterans Guardian's strategy to support veterans in employment includes:

- Structured hiring processes aimed at veteran candidates
- Retention, career development, and upskilling programs
- Internal veteran resource groups and mentorship
- Tracking veteran employment metrics and outcomes

These initiatives complement the company's long-standing Military Friendly® designation, reinforcing a holistic and sustained commitment to the military community.
