

Oceanside Bombers Arena Football Team announce Cree Morris NFL and Arena Football League veteran as their new Head Coach

Oceanside Bombers select Cree Morris as their new Head Coach. Cree, from Escondido, CA, has deep roots in the City of Oceanside and the surrounding communities.

OCEANSIDE, CA, UNITED STATES, November 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Oceanside Bombers announce Cree Morris as their new Head Coach. Cree, from Escondido, CA, has deep roots in the City of Oceanside and the surrounding community through his quarterback academy, where he trains and develops local talent. He currently works as a private quarterback coach. Cree is a hands-on coach and mentor who emphasizes technique, academic success, and character development.

Vernon Pertelle (bottom left) with Greg Anderson (top left) and Cree Morris (right)

Morris played in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders and St. Louis Rams. He also played for the London Monarchs of NFL Europe, the San Jose SaberCats, and the Iowa Barnstormers of the Arena Football League. His coaching experience includes serving as the head coach of the San Diego Riptide and coaching the Central Valley Coyotes of the Arena Football League.

He remains an active NFL alumnus, mentoring college and high school players through the NFL Players Association. Greg Anderson, a fellow NFL alumnus and NFLPA member, said, "Cree is a passionate servant leader who believes in community first and pays close attention to detail in athletics and education. Through his coaching style and life lessons, he inspires excellence in players and coaches."

Anderson, a partner with the Oceanside Bombers, also serves as the team's assistant GM and community engagement leader. He knows Cree well; Anderson also played in the NFL for the NY

Giants and the Cleveland Browns, as well as in the USFL. A former GM for the Arena Football League in the U.S. and Europe, Anderson believes the Bombers are very fortunate to have a coach of Morris's caliber and expertise leading the team.

Cree grew up in Escondido, CA, and was a talented quarterback at Orange Glen High School. His outstanding performance in his senior year helped Orange Glen reach the San Diego CIF Championship game, throwing for an impressive 3,212 yards that season, which earned him a spot on The Los Angeles Times' all-section first team. This success led to his being selected as a quarterback at San Diego State University. During his time with the Aztecs, he played alongside future Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk in memorable NCAA games, highlighting his remarkable journey.

Cree recently met with members of the Oceanside Bombers' front office and shared some entertaining stories about his experiences with the Aztecs, playing alongside Faulk. Said Vernon Pertelle, president and managing partner of the Bombers, "It was surreal to hear Cree's perspective on playing days with Faulk. It completed the picture for me, based on conversations with Faulk during his celebrity golf tournament. Faulk was the host of the Celebrity Championship, which raised money for the Junior Seau Foundation and his own Marshall Faulk Foundation."

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell (center) Tracy Perlman (second right) Cree Morris (right)

“

We are excited to begin this journey for the community and look forward to working with Cree in fulfilling our mission and our commitment to selecting local, qualified talent for the organization.”

Greg Anderson

Cree will take over the team, begin assembling his staff, and prepare for tryouts and training camp to start forming the roster. Said Anderson, “We are excited to begin this journey for the community and look forward to working with Cree to further fulfill our mission and our commitment to selecting local qualified talent for the organization.”

Greg Anderson
Oceanside Bombers
+1 863-595-7803
email us here
Visit us on social media:
LinkedIn
Instagram
Facebook

Marshall Faulk with Vernon Pertelle

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/865278749>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.