Dasseti, a leading technology provider for ESG data management and operational due diligence in private markets, has been named Technology Innovation of the Year: ESG & Impact Investing and Solution Provider of the Year: ODD at the PE Wire US Awards 2025.

The dual recognition reflects Dasseti's commitment to advancing data-driven solutions that enable investors and fund managers to streamline ESG reporting and due diligence processes with greater accuracy, transparency, and efficiency.

"We are honored to be recognized in two categories that represent the foundation of our mission," said Louise Verga, Managing Director and Head of Americas at Dasseti. "Our team is deeply committed to helping clients elevate their ODD capabilities through innovative technology that delivers measurable value. These awards are a testament to the progress we've made together with our clients and partners across the industry."
