In 2025, the 17th year for the Top Workplaces awards in D-FW, a record-breaking number of more than 8,000 deserving companies were nominated — and more than 136,000 employees were surveyed.

“Organizationally, we have long recognized that a truly collaborative team is the foundation of a strong and successful culture,” said Mark Andrews, CEO of KE Andrews. “We are proud and delighted to celebrate the KEA team for embodying this spirit of teamwork and excellence.”

Winners were honored during a special invite-only awards celebration on Thursday, November 6 and will be featured in the Top Workplaces D-FW magazine, distributed in The Dallas Morning

News on November 9.

At KE Andrews, we are proud to be among the 2025 Top Workplaces D-FW winners.

The business community in North Texas is the engine that drives progress and change for all aspects of our region — education, mobility, infrastructure, housing, philanthropy, and so much more.
