

Wytrwal Industries Completes Research Study on Rare Earth Elements

The Veteran-owned consulting firm built an assessment on select critical minerals for aerospace, defense, and technology firms

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, November 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wytrwal Industries Holding Company, LLC, ("Wytrwal") a leading international consulting firm and government contractor focused on finance, economics, and analytics in the global emerging markets is pleased to announce its completion of a deep-dive research project on rare earth elements and related supply chain challenges for a private sector client.

"Rare earth minerals are mentioned weekly in the press as the United States and its Allies make strategic investments in select mining ventures in order to secure technology supply chains critical to the nation's aerospace, defense, and semiconductor manufacturing sectors," commented Ed Luzine, the Founder and CEO of Wytrwal Industries, a former emerging markets investment banker and Army officer.

"It is a fascinating time to be operating and investing in the mining ventures of rare earths and related critical minerals sector during trade volatility with China. In fact, the severe Chinese trade policies have provided the spark to incentivize the flow of both private and public sector capital into mining concerns across the Americas, Europe, Africa, Australia, and even Central Asia as witnessed by the recent trade agreement with Kazakhstan and their participation in the Abraham Accords," he added.
