

Kornerz Replaces the Doomscroll with “Real Conversation”

Leadership's Monumental User Experience Driven by Safety-First Design

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,
November 11, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Kornerz, the brand-new, fast-growing and dynamic social media platform designed to define the real origins and goodness of social media and why the movement began in the first place, has introduced a new section that allows users to see the "Kornerstones" and "Klunderzs" of a specific Korner. This new sector, "Real Conversation", now allows users to see who is currently online "inside" the nook and how many spots are remaining. This new piece of the app is designed to give a user and overall positive experience and highly satisfactory feeling as they use the Kornerz platform. It's a field focused on creating products that are useful, usable, accessible, and enjoyable for the user.

“Kornerz is a dynamic multidisciplinary app and it was founded on a simple premise, connection before scale,” said CEO Khalil Sautchuk Jezini. “We know people were craving something better than the endless, performative feed. They wanted a trusted room where genuine conversations could flourish. Our members confirm this daily. As Klouder Brenda says, 'Kornerz doesn't just enable conversations; it cultivates meaningful connections that truly resonate in ways no other platform ever has.’”

This new User Experience or UX is the clearest path yet to that promise. We've replaced the 'feed' with a curated ecosystem of Korners—each one a thematic community led by vetted Kornerstones. But the heart of the experience is the Nook: an opt-in, video chat room strictly limited to 9 people.

When a user opens Kornerz, they aren't scrolling, instead they are deciding to be present. The subscriber looks at a Korner, sees exactly who is live in a Nook, checks the remaining spots, and then steps into an immediate, high-quality discussion. The app is designed and built entirely on safety, belonging, and presence. As one member put it, 'Finally, the social network I've been craving! It's where genuine, unfiltered discussions come alive'."
