

BlueGrace Expands with Acquisition of STB Freight Group

BlueGrace Logistics acquires STB Freight Group, expanding in the Midwest and giving customers access to advanced, tech-driven managed logistics services.

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES, November 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

BlueGrace Logistics, (BlueGrace), a leading Managed Logistics (3PL) provider operating throughout North America, announced today the acquisition of STB Freight Group, a Michigan-based managed logistics company known for its customer-first approach and strong presence across the Midwest. The acquisition gives STB customers access to BlueGrace's full suite of Managed Logistics, LTL, TL, refrigerated, and multimodal transportation services, supported by advanced technology and data-driven optimization.

Founded in 2016, STB Freight Group has built a trusted customer base across industries such as retail, CPG, automotive, aerospace, USDA-regulated food, and general manufacturing. The company operated as a managed logistics provider with services covering the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

"STB's service-driven culture and commitment to transparency are a perfect fit for BlueGrace," said Bobby Harris, Founder and CEO of BlueGrace Logistics. "By joining forces, STB customers gain access to our full Managed Logistics® platform, providing proprietary optimization. offers end-to-end visibility, freight optimization, and analytics across all modes, including LTL, truckload, and parcel.

“This is an exciting step for STB customers,” said Adam Blankenship, President of BlueGrace Logistics. “They now have the scale, technology, and resources of a national managed transportation provider while keeping the personal, service-first attention they have always enjoyed.”

BlueGrace expects to integrate day-to-day operations into its broader organization, ensuring continuity for customers and a smooth alignment of services.
