

United Community Honors Veterans Day Through Donations Across Southeast

GREENVILLE, SC, UNITED STATES,
November 11, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- United Community is honoring Veterans Day with $30,000 in donations to organizations across its footprint in support of veterans and their families.

"We owe so many of the freedoms and liberties that we have been given to those who have served our country," say Holly Boynton, community development senior manager at United Community, "Supporting our veterans throughout the year is paramount, but we love to use this recognized day to demonstrate our team's appreciation for their service and sacrifices, and to support the organizations making a difference every day. Through their programs, these organizations provide critical resources for veterans, from housing assistance and educational opportunities to job skills development and economic empowerment, ensuring they have the tools to thrive after service."
