P6 Aviation Expands with New Satellite Location at Morristown Municipal Airport (KMMU)

Public Invited to Open House on Sunday, November 16, 10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Morristown, New Jersey - P6 Aviation today announced the opening of its new satellite location at Morristown Municipal Airport (KMMU), further expanding its footprint and enhancing access to premium Cirrus flight training and aircraft services in the New York–New Jersey region.

To mark the occasion, P6 Aviation will host a public Open House on Sunday, November 16, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the new facility, located in the Signature Aviation hangar at Morristown Municipal Airport.

The event will feature:

- Guided access to the new P6 Aviation satellite facility
- Opportunities to meet the P6 Training Team and learn about training programs
- Complimentary food and refreshments

Static display of several state-of-the-art aircraft:

2025 Cirrus SF50 Vision Jet G2+

2025 Cirrus SR22T G7+

2025 Cirrus SR20 G7+

Guests will be invited to sit in the cockpit of the aircraft on display, providing an up-close look at the advanced avionics, performance capabilities, and safety features that define the Cirrus fleet.

The event is open to:

- Individuals interested in learning to fly
- Pilots transitioning into Cirrus aircraft.
- Those considering purchasing an aircraft
- Existing P6 Aviation clients wishing to tour the new space.
