“Homeowners don't realize how much money they lose when they refinance back into a new 30-year term,” said Jason Ruedy, The Home Loan Arranger. “A customized 27-year refinance keeps you aligned with your original amortization schedule, saves thousands in long-term interest, and dramatically accelerates your path to financial freedom.”

Ruedy's tailored 27-year refinance helps Denver borrowers:

Stay on track with their original payoff timeline

Avoid wasting years of payments by restarting to 30 years

Reduce total interest paid over the life of the loan

Lower monthly payments without resetting the clock

Access equity with aggressive, competitive cash-out options

This strategy is a powerful tool for Denver homeowners seeking debt consolidation, payment relief, or 90% LTV cash-out refinance solutions.

Denver homeowners consistently choose Jason Ruedy because he delivers:

Lightning-fast closing times
