

ARTS GARAGE LAUNCHES 2025 ANNUAL CAMPAIGN WITH $20,000 MATCHING GIFT CHALLENGE

Contributions will directly sustain community programs, including youth theatre camps, free ticket initiatives, visual arts exhibitions, and more

DELRAY BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, November 12, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Arts Garage, a Visual & Performing Arts Center in Downtown Delray Beach, has launched its 2025 Annual Campaign with a goal to raise $40,000 in support of its mission to make the arts accessible for all. Longtime supporters Helen Rothlein and James White of The Compass Group at Morgan Stanley, along with Anita Perlman, a generous philanthropist and member of the Band of Angels at Arts Garage, have each pledged a $10,000 matching challenge—combining for a total of $20,000 in matching funds. Every contribution made before December 31, 2025 will be matched dollar-for-dollar, doubling its impact.

“At Arts Garage, we believe the arts are for everyone,” said Marjorie Waldo, President & CEO of Arts Garage. “Our community’s ongoing generosity allows us to continue presenting world-class performances, offering scholarships, supporting local artists, and providing accessible arts education to all.”

The Annual Campaign—anchored by the theme “The Arts Matter!”—arrives at a pivotal time for arts and cultural organizations nationwide, many of which are facing shrinking public and private funding. Contributions to this year’s campaign will directly sustain Arts Garage’s hallmark community programs, including youth theatre camps, free ticket initiatives, visual arts exhibitions, and more.

The Impact of Arts Garage (FY 2024–2025):

-300+ performances, classes, and community events hosted

-31,700+ attendees

-740+ professional and 770+ emerging artists featured

-53 artists showcased in 14 visual art exhibits, with artists receiving a 70-80% commission

-1,000+ free tickets distributed annually

Our community’s ongoing generosity allows us to continue presenting world-class performances, offering scholarships, supporting local artists, and providing accessible arts education to all.”
