

Global Immigration Partners Highlights Updated Market Expectations for E-2 Visa Investment Levels

New guidance addressing widespread confusion surrounding the investment expectations for the E-2 Treaty Investor Visa

WASHINGTON DC, DC, UNITED STATES, November 13, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Immigration Partners, a leading international immigration law firm specializing in U.S. investor and business visas, today released new guidance addressing widespread confusion surrounding the investment expectations for the E-2 Treaty Investor Visa. As global interest in U.S. business expansion continues to rise, the firm aims to provide clarity for entrepreneurs evaluating whether their capital plans align with E-2

No Statutory Minimum — But Strategic Investment Planning Is Essential

regulatory standards.

The E-2 visa continues to be one of the most flexible and entrepreneur-friendly pathways into the United States"

Alexander Jovy

Although the E-2 visa requires a "substantial" investment, U.S. law does not specify a minimum dollar amount. This flexibility is designed to accommodate a wide range of businesses, from service-based startups to larger operational enterprises.

Global Immigration Partners emphasizes that adjudicating officers focus on the relationship between the investment and the total cost of the business, as well as the investor's commitment and the business's potential to create jobs in the United States.

Key considerations include:

Demonstrating that the investment is sufficient to launch and operate the business successfully;

Ensuring funds are fully committed and at risk;

Showing the business is operational or imminently operational;

Providing detailed financials that establish the business is more than marginal.

While the "right amount" varies by industry, current market trends show that many viable E-2 enterprises require investment levels that position the business for early revenue growth, operational stability, and U.S. hiring potential.

Firm Insight: Business Viability Drives Approval

"The most successful E-2 visa strategies begin with a credible business model—not a target number," said Alexander Jovy, co-managing partner at Global Immigration Partners. "We work with clients to structure investments that demonstrate genuine entrepreneurial commitment and long-term economic impact in the United
