

Funfull Launches 'Funfull at Home,' Bringing Creativity and Connection to Idaho Families

This Black Friday, Funfull is unveiling Funfull at Home, a new way for Treasure Valley families to discover creativity and connection without leaving the house.

BOISE, ID, UNITED STATES, November 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The season of giving is here, and Funfull is turning up the joy. The company, known for helping families find fun activities near you through its FunPass, is expanding the meaning of family entertainment with the introduction of Funfull at Home, a new offering that brings hands-on learning and hobbies straight to living rooms across the Treasure Valley.

With Funfull at Home, families can explore thousands of online classes and videos in painting, photography, yoga, cake design, knitting, sewing, and more. Each activity is crafted to encourage creativity, bonding, and fun between parents and kids—perfect for cozy winter weekends or after-school projects. Funfull's upcoming Black Friday deal will make it easier than ever for Idaho families to enjoy both sides of the experience: action-packed outings and at-home adventures. The limited-time offer will be the company's biggest deal of the year, designed to help parents stretch their holiday budgets while unlocking new ways to play and learn together that will last all year long.

I've always believed that strong family bonds are made over shared activities and adventures. After all, the essence of family bonding is the time you spend together.”

Funfull*

“Boise families love a good mix of adventure and creativity,” said Vishal Patel, CEO and Founder of Funfull.

“Our mission has always been about togetherness—whether families are skating at a local family fun center or learning how to bake bread in their own kitchen. With Funfull at Home, we're giving them even more ways to connect.”

Through its growing FunPass network, Funfull partners with more than 10,000 family entertainment venues nationwide, including trampoline parks, cinemas, skating centers, arcades, and theme parks. In Idaho, members can visit popular spots like Wahooz, Cinemark, and dozens of other fun places to go across the Treasure Valley-all included in one simple membership.

This year’s Black Friday promotion will extend beyond attractions, offering families the chance to access both local favorites and creative digital activities in one package. Whether it’s a trip to the arcade or an evening spent painting side by side, Funfull’s focus remains on experiences that build memories-not clutter.

“As we move into the holidays, our goal is to help families find balance,” Patel added. “The new Funfull at Home experience lets parents and children create, laugh, and grow together-anywhere, anytime. Funfull is now part of everyday life, from a night out in the city to a night in on the couch.”

About Funfull

Our Mission

Funfull is committed to making family fun simple, affordable, and accessible every day of the year. By combining real-world entertainment with creative learning, Funfull inspires connection between families through play, exploration, and imagination.

Our Reach

Through its FunPass membership, Funfull connects members to over 10,000 family attractions and entertainment venues across seven states, including Idaho. Partners include trusted national names such as Altitude Trampoline Park, Hersheypark, Regal Cinemas, AMC, and Cinemark. The new Funfull at Home content extends that mission digitally, giving families access to thousands of lessons and creative activities they can enjoy together from home.
