Hospitality and catering recruiter KSB Recruitment has been shortlisted for five national industry awards across the British Recruitment Awards 2025 and REC Awards 2025, highlighting its focus on candidate experience, specialist service, culture, leadership and client impact. Winners for the British Recruitment Awards were revealed on 12 November, with REC Awards winners announced on 20 November.

The British Recruitment Awards 2025 recognises employers, agencies and talent teams across the UK. KSB Recruitment features as a finalist in two categories: Candidate Experience of the Year and Specialist Recruitment Agency of the Year.

The programme, run by employee insight platform New Possible, received more than 340 entries from organisations of all sizes, from start up firms to large national brands. Shortlisting for Candidate Experience of the Year award highlights a strong focus on clear communication, feedback and support for hospitality professionals at every stage of the hiring process. The Specialist Recruitment Agency of the Year nomination reflects deep sector knowledge and long term partnerships with hotels, resorts, contract caterers, visitor attractions and independent venues across the country.

Alongside this success, KSB Recruitment appears on the shortlist for three REC Awards 2025 categories: Best Company to Work For, Business Leader of the Year and Impact on a Client's Business Award. The REC Awards are the only recruitment sector awards hosted by the Recruitment & Employment Confederation, open exclusively to REC members and billed as the highest recognition available within the industry.
