EINPresswire.com/ -- DOCTOR SCIENCE wants to take a vacation from answering questions this week. Or does he?

DOCTOR SCIENCE is a comedy video series featuring Doctor Science (Dan Coffey) giving outrageous answers to a viewer questions presented by his lab assistant, Rodney (Merle Kessler).

Doctor Science is voiced by Dan Coffey. Dan co-wrote the series and answered questions at Duck's Breath Mystery Theatre performances.

The Sunny Side series, written and performed by Coffey and Kessler, is being released Monday through Friday mornings on Sunny Side YouTube, INSTAGRAM@SunnySideComedyFun, and TikTok@SunnySideComedyFun.

DOCTOR SCIENCE is making terrific evergreen comedy accessible to generations of comedy lovers.”

Bill Allard

Most of the comedy videos in the series are stand alone, but, this week, Doctor Science announces to Rodney that he is "going fishing!" A delightful story unfolds over the five episodes as Rodney tries to answer viewer questions but is thwarted by Doctor Science's refusal to actually leave the lab.

DOCTOR SCIENCE series is currently averaging 1,500 views per release.

"DOCTOR SCIENCE is making terrific evergreen comedy accessible to generations of comedy lovers," says Bill Allard, Director of Duck Spots, the company producing and distributing the series.

QUEEN OF THE WORLD, the other comedy video series Duck Spots has been releasing M-F in 2025, is currently averaging 3,000 views per release.

Duck Spots is developing two more comedy video series that they plan to start M-F releasing before the end of the year.
