“True development is never imposed from the outside,” she said. “Sovereignty is not isolation—it is strategic participation.”

Drawing on her family’s legacy of innovation and public service, Vanderbilt-Costin underscored the need to translate ideals into measurable systems that unite government, technology, and culture. As leader of the CGC Sessions under the overall leadership of David Sanchez, Secretary-General Council of Global Change, Consuelo champions a pragmatic framework that empowers nations through resilience, creativity, and institutional strength.
