

Advanced Door Automation to Exhibit at NFMT Charlotte 2026

Showcasing Automatic Door Solutions for Facilities Management

DURHAM, NC, UNITED STATES, November 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the first time in its 25-year history, the National Facilities Management & Technology (NFMT) Expo is moving from Baltimore to Charlotte, NC and Advanced Door Automation (ADA), a branch of Door Services Corporation, is proud to exhibit at this milestone event in March 2026.

NFMT is a great opportunity to engage with facility managers and showcase commercial door solutions that help enhance safety, efficiency, operational excellence.”

Krista Rivers, Marketing Manager at Door Services Corporation

Why doors matter in facilities management:

- First impressions count. Your entrances are the first thing customers, employees, and visitors see.
- Safety and reliability are critical. Keep entryways operating efficiently 24/7 with certified technicians.
- Fire door compliance saves lives. Non-compliance can have serious consequences—our experts can help.
- Touchless access is essential. Nearly 80% of illness-causing germs spread by hands. Door automation helps reduce risk.

As a branch of Door Services Corporation and a Horton Automatics Company, Advanced Door Automation provides comprehensive service and installation for automatic sliding doors, ICU/healthcare doors, revolving doors, swing doors, Won-Door fire and security solutions, drive-thru windows, fire door inspections, and preventative maintenance programs.

Meet our team at NFMT Charlotte!

Our experts will be available to answer questions and share how we deliver peace of mind through safe, compliant, and innovative door solutions.

“We’re thrilled for the opportunity to exhibit at NFMT Charlotte this coming March,” says Krista Rivers, Marketing Manager at Door Services Corporation. “We haven’t yet had a tradeshow presence in this region and are excited to see what new connections we make! NFMT, no matter where it is, is a great opportunity to engage with facility managers and showcase commercial door solutions that help enhance safety, efficiency, operational excellence.”
