

Actor Titus Thorpe Secures Multi-Award-Winning Publicist Desirae L. Benson as New Public Relations Representative

Positioning a Dynamic Talent for the Spotlight He Deserves

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, November 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dynamic actor, Titus Thorpe, known for his versatile on-screen presence and recent role as George Malcolm—the father of the bride—in the acclaimed film My African Wedding, has officially secured multi-award-winning publicist Desirae L. Benson as his new representation.

I've fought for every opportunity that brought me here, and now it's time to elevate. Working with Desirae means stepping into a new era of excellence—and I'm ready for it.”

This strategic partnership marks a powerful new chapter for Thorpe, whose career continues to gain momentum across film, television, and digital platforms. Aligning with Benson, a highly sought-after entertainment publicist, multimedia journalist and professional Recording Academy member, positions Thorpe for elevated visibility and expanded opportunities as he enters a pivotal stage in his acting journey.

A Competitor Since Childhood, Built for the Spotlight:

Titus Thorpe's resilience began early. Growing up, he learned quickly that blending in was never an option. His determination and positive outlook shaped him long before he stepped onto a set.

A natural competitor, Thorpe became an All-Conference basketball player at Columbia-Greene Junior College in Hudson, NY, where he earned his A.A.S. in General Studies. He later attended the prestigious Virginia Union University in Richmond, VA, becoming a distinguished member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., an organization rooted in service, leadership, and uplifting the community.

Balancing the responsibilities of fatherhood during college only sharpened his drive to evolve beyond average—ultimately paving the way for a career in acting.

A Versatile Actor with Dynamic Range:

From New York to Hollywood, Titus Thorpe has carved out a reputation as an actor who can do it all.

His television work includes multiple appearances on Law & Order, as well as numerous features across film and TV. Thorpe refined his craft at the Image International Modeling and Acting Center in Allentown, PA, earning a Certificate of Achievement for his mastery of cold reading, improvisation, stage presence, and character development.

A true chameleon, Thorpe is known for his ability to transition seamlessly between roles—from detectives, FBI agents, lawyers, and doctors to gangsters, drug lords, and gritty street-level characters. His adaptability makes him a casting director's dream: he never shows up as just one thing.
