We wanted to recognize the strength, resilience, and determination of these young people and remind others recovering from trauma that there is hope and a path forward.”

Steve Gursten, Attorney and Owner of Michigan Auto Law

Survivor Scholarship. The annual $1,000 scholarship honors college students across the United States who were innocent victims of car accidents and have demonstrated remarkable courage and perseverance while continuing their education.

"Each year, we hear stories of inspiring young people who have overcome tremendous obstacles after serious car accidents," stated Steve Gursten, Attorney and Owner of Michigan Auto Law. "As auto accident attorneys, we created this scholarship based on our own experience helping innocent crash victims. We wanted to recognize the strength, resilience, and determination of these young people as well as to remind others recovering from trauma that there is hope and a path forward."

This scholarship serves as a meaningful way for the auto accident attorneys at Michigan Auto Law to honor the bravery of innocent automobile crash survivors as they continue to courageously persevere through medical recoveries and pursue higher education.

"We've witnessed incredible stories of human resilience" Gursten added. "By recognizing and celebrating these outstanding students, we hope to inspire others who are facing their own recoveries after a car accident."

For more than 50 years, Michigan Auto Law has dedicated its practice to helping innocent people injured in auto accidents across Michigan. The firm's Car Accident Injury Survivor Scholarship underscores its commitment to viewing every client as a person, not just a claim.

The annual scholarship is awarded to one winner who will receive $1,000 towards furthering their education.
