"For 21 years, supporting Cobb Christmas has been one of the most rewarding traditions for our Traton Homes family," said Chris Poston, Chief Operating Officer of Traton Homes. "Each holiday season, we're reminded how generous our team, partners and homeowners are, and how a simple act of giving can bring so much joy to children and families in our community. It's an honor to continue this tradition of caring and connection."

For more than two decades, the Marietta-based builder has proudly supported Cobb Christmas, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to helping low-income and working-poor families in Cobb County during the holiday season. Each year, Traton Homes employees, trade partners and homeowners come together to donate thousands of toys, creating brighter holidays for children across the county.

This year's goal is to ensure every child enjoys a magical Christmas morning. While toys for ages 3-12 are appreciated, there is a special need for gifts for children ages 9-12. Suggested items include educational toys, Legos, dolls, sports equipment, play kitchens, puzzles and remote-control toys.
