Future-Proofing Identity Programs for a Volatile Digital World

Date: December 8, 2025

Time: 1:40 PM CST

Location: Theater 1

Session Abstract:

In an era of AI disruption and global uncertainty, organizations struggle to keep identity programs agile, accurate, and compliant. This session explores how leading institutions modernized IAM to withstand rapid change—leveraging automation, clean data, and intelligent policies to strengthen governance. Attendees will gain actionable strategies to enhance IAM resilience and continuity in unpredictable environments.

“We’re honored to return to the Gartner IAM Summit and connect with industry leaders who are actively shaping the future of identity,” said Bryan Leber, CEO of Fischer Identity. “For too long, IAM has meant complexity, years-long implementations, and exorbitant expense. Fischer Identity was built to challenge that model—with a no-code platform that delivers faster, smarter, and more sustainable outcomes.”

Chuck Donnelly, Vice President of Field Operations, added: “As identity becomes the cornerstone of enterprise security, we’re seeing growing demand for fast, flexible IAM solutions. This summit is the perfect venue to showcase how Fischer is helping organizations streamline governance, cut deployment times, and respond faster to change.”

Why Attend?

Visitors to Booth #615 will experience how Fischer Identity helps organizations:

- Accelerate IAM deployment with a no-code, fully configurable platform
- Eliminate complexity and reduce long-term operational costs
- Enable secure access across hybrid environments and cloud-first strategies
- Strengthen governance, audit readiness, and compliance
