

Kotori Technologies Welcomes Devin Carter to the Team

SUMMERVILLE, SC, UNITED STATES, November 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kotori Technologies is excited to announce the addition of Devin Carter to our growing team of IT professionals. Devin brings a wealth of experience and expertise that will strengthen our commitment to delivering exceptional technology solutions to businesses across the region.

With an Associate's degree in Computer Networking Systems and a Bachelor's degree in Cybersecurity, Devin has built a 16-year career in IT, serving diverse industries including Medical, Civil Engineering, Education, and Manufacturing. Originally from Spartanburg, SC, Devin relocated to the Charleston area in 2019 and has since focused on advancing enterprise-level technology strategies.

Devin's top skills include mastery of Microsoft systems, with a specific focus on Azure, Microsoft Intune, and Power Platform. His approach emphasizes streamlined processes, enhanced service delivery, and optimal system availability. Devin is passionate about driving efficiency through proactive monitoring, automation strategies, and continuous improvement initiatives.

"My goal is to advance the technical capabilities of the service delivery team through targeted training and innovation," Devin shared. "By implementing proactive solutions, we can reduce downtime and deliver exceptional customer experiences."

Kotori Technologies is thrilled to have Devin on board as we continue to provide cutting-edge IT solutions that empower businesses to thrive in today's digital landscape.
