What Is The Crucial Factor Driving The Global Empty Capsules Market?

The empty capsules market is projected to expand due to the rising prevalence of chronic illnesses. Chronic diseases, which typically last three months or longer and may deteriorate over time, include cancer, heart disease, stroke, diabetes, and arthritis. Empty capsules are employed to distribute a range of medications without altering their compositions, ensuring they effectively deliver the drug without interfering with its formulation. For example, the American Cancer Society, a US health organization, published research in January 2022 forecasting 609,360 cancer-related deaths and 1.9 million new cancer diagnoses in the US for the year. This equates to about 1,670 deaths per day. Hence, the increasing occurrence of chronic conditions is fueling the advancement of the empty capsules market.

Who Are The Emerging Players In The Empty Capsules Market?

Major players in the Empty Capsules include:

- ACG Group
- CapsCanada Corporation
- HealthCaps India Limited
- Natural Capsules Ltd.
- Bright Pharma Caps Inc.
- Suheung Co. Ltd.
- Roxlor LLC
- Lonza Group AG

What Are The Key Trends Shaping The Empty Capsules Industry?

The ongoing surge in product advancements has been noted as a significant pattern in the empty capsules market. Major market players are introducing innovative products to consolidate their standing in this sector. For instance, Bright Pharma Caps Inc, an Indian pharmaceutical corporation, rolled out Bright-Poly in August 2023. These were the first-ever capsules that were officially certified as organic and made from USDA-approved organic pullulan. The introduction of these capsules meets a previously unaddressed need for organic encapsulation options in the nutritional supplement industry. Manufactured using NOP certified organic pullulan, purified water, and alginates, Bright-Poly capsules are devoid of the usual surfactants and chemical additives found in traditional capsules.
