Unmatched Savings on the Best Gaming & Overall Desktop PC Experience
For a limited time, Velocity Micro is offering up to $800 in total savings on its handcrafted systems built at its Richmond facility.

Offers include:

Instant discounts up to $300 on select systems.

Free ground shipping (lower 48 states only).

Free 2-year extended warranty (up to a $399 value).

Free RGB fan upgrade for a limited time.

Featured models include the Raptor™ Z95 — built for ultimate gaming and high-demand applications — now starting at $2,299.

This sale enables fans of high-performance computing to own what many reviewers call the best gaming desktop or best overall desktop PC experience in its class.

Why Velocity Micro Leads the Pack

Since 1997, Velocity Micro has engineered desktops recognized for excellence in both gaming and professional workstation performance. With over 70 industry awards, hand-assembled U.S. builds and rigorous quality control (200-point inspection), the company is trusted by gamers, professionals and even Fortune 100 companies.

“We believe a PC should deliver uncompromised performance right out of the box — whether users are gaming, streaming, creating or simply demanding the best overall desktop experience,” said Randy Copeland, President and CEO of Velocity Micro. “With our Black Friday 2025 sale, we’re giving enthusiasts and power users an opportunity to step into a system built for the future at unprecedented value.”
