

New Orleans' The Windsor Court Announces Cherished Holiday Traditions

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES,
November 21, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The Windsor Court, an elegant escape in the heart of a legendary city, comes alive during the holidays with festive offerings including famed, seasonally-themed afternoon tea, picture worthy decorated lobby, a four-course Réveillon celebration and Christmas eve and day menus along with special in-room experiences to make holiday travel incredibly special. Guests may indulge in festive feasts and cozy up with specialty winter cocktails to partake in the timeless traditions, luxurious offerings, and unique expressions of holiday magic.

Holiday Magic at The Windsor Court
Boasting majestic décor throughout the hotel and outlets created by the designers at Dunn and Sonnier, The Windsor Court is home to a 19 ½-foot Norway Spruce Christmas tree with more than 25,000 mini white lights and a classic toy train encircling the base. The property presents ten trees that come from the recovery efforts of Hurricane Helene in the Carolinas, donning more than 3,000 ornaments along with myriad wreaths and over 1,500 feet of gold magnolia garland trimming the lobby and grand stairwell.

Holidays at The Windsor Court

The Windsor Court introduces The Concierge's Guide to a Season Well Spent, a curated collection of festive experiences designed to help guests savor the very best of New Orleans during the holidays. From candlelit concerts in St. Louis Cathedral and caroling in Jackson Square to dazzling light displays beneath century-old oaks, the guide highlights the city's most beloved traditions alongside insider-favorite moments such as jazz riverboat cruises, Preservation Hall holiday performances, and spirited nightcaps at The Polo Club. Guests can also indulge in seasonal flavors through Réveillon dinners, French Market treats, and the hotel's renowned Holiday Tea at Le Salon. Thoughtfully crafted by the concierge team, the guide serves as a ready-made itinerary for making the season unforgettable.

Holidays at The Windsor Court

Visitors are invited to make the most of their holiday memories with the hotel's special Windsor Wishes tree in the lobby. Guests can write their wishes or dreams on one of the hotel's complimentary ornaments, hang it on the tree, and then snap and post a photo to social media, tagging @TheWindsorCourt with the #WindsorWishes hashtag. The hotel will share and repost their favorites.

Le Salon's Holiday Tea

A treasured tradition, British afternoon holiday tea has celebrated for over 25 years during the New Orleans holiday season from Nov. 29 - Dec. 31. Holiday Tea in Le Salon continues to be a community tradition. Serving up to 200 guests per day during this festive time of year, The Windsor Court continues to present their beautiful British experience in Le Salon. The elegant experience includes a selection of 30 of the finest loose-leaf variety brews, decadent English tea sandwiches, house-made seasonal scones served with raspberry preserves, Devonshire crème, Lemon Curd & Vanilla Bean Whipped Cream, the stand's top tier holds the coveted sweet treats, Chocolate Covered Strawberry & Truffle, Miniature Cake and Tartlet while a harpist or pianist sets the ambiance.

The Polo Club announced its seasonal cocktail menu that presents storied staples and festive sips designed to celebrate the flavors and traditions of New Orleans with the signature Polo Club experience. A few highlights include:

- The Polo Cup, a distinctly British beverage with modern elevations, is sure to be a hit with a blend of classic flavors like strawberry, lemon, and mint.
- The Cranberry Buck is a refreshing and bright blend of cranberry, spice, and everything nice that's as crisp as a winter's day.

- The Gingerbread Milk Punch is a decadent nod to holiday nostalgia, with creamy bourbon cocktail layers, warm gingerbread spice with velvety cream, topped with whipped cream and a touch of winter magic.
- The Apple Sangaree brings together orchard-fresh apple flavor and spiced red wine for a modern twist on a classic sangaree.

Savor the Season in The Grill Room
