“Thanksgiving week brings in guests who aren't just passing through — they're here to enjoy something they don't get at home,” said K. Michelle, co-owner of Sun and Speed. “For some, that means a luxury SUV for the family. For others, it's finally driving a supercar they've talked about for years, or arriving at an important moment in a way that feels memorable.”

Sun and Speed offers a selection of vehicles and experiences ranging from luxury SUVs to high-performance sports cars and supercars, including models from brands such as Ferrari, McLaren, Lamborghini, Porsche, Mercedes-Benz, Bentley, and Rolls-Royce. Options include hourly and daily rentals, as well as passenger experiences for guests who prefer to enjoy the ride without driving.

The company said that during Thanksgiving week it places particular emphasis on coordination with hotel concierges and event planners so that vehicles can be integrated smoothly into guests' holiday plans, whether for a single afternoon drive or a key moment within a larger celebration.
