MDC Online Support*

MDC Online provides students with flexible access to accredited academic pathways through interactive online learning. Courses are delivered via the Canvas learning platform and supported by faculty expertise, academic resources, and technology designed for a fully online experience.

“Our online programs are structured to meet the needs of today’s learners and the growing demands of the workforce,” said Claudia Orrego, Director of MDC Online Support. “These pathways offer students the ability to develop skills in healthcare, leadership, and business while accessing high-quality instruction from anywhere.”

The RN to BSN program strengthens nursing professionals’ clinical and leadership capabilities, while the Leadership and Management Innovation bachelor’s program prepares students for supervisory, administrative, and project leadership roles in a wide range of industries.

MDC Online’s College Credit Certificate programs offer focused training in business management and human resources, providing short-term academic credentials that also apply toward future degree completion.

Those exploring online learning opportunities for Spring 2026 can view full program details, degree pathways, and registration information at Online.MDC.edu.
