

OP360 in Colombia Honored with Social Impact in Education Award

RIDGEFIELD, CT, UNITED STATES,
November 24, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- OP360 is pleased to announce that our Colombian team has been honored with the prestigious Social Impact in Education Award. This recognition not only celebrates our unwavering commitment to education through our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) program, #OP360Cares, but also enhances our reputation as a socially responsible organization.

Presented at a ceremony recognizing organizations that champion educational advancement, this award reinforces OP360's deep-rooted belief that learning creates opportunities—and that these opportunities transform lives.

A Recognition of Purpose and Impact

This award highlights the work our Colombia team has poured into uplifting communities through education-focused initiatives. Guided by our people-first values and purpose-driven culture, OP360 continues to invest in programs that make a meaningful difference in the lives of our employees and their families.

Scholarships That Create Real Opportunities

As part of this recognition, OP360 received:

Five postgraduate scholarships, and
Five undergraduate scholarships

These scholarships, a testament to our commitment to personal growth, will directly benefit

OP360 employees and their family members—helping them pursue higher education and broaden their future career pathways. It's a tangible step in our mission to empower individuals through learning and reinforce our belief that education is the foundation for long-term progress.

Living Our Values Beyond the Workplace

This milestone is more than an achievement—it's a reflection of the collective heart of our OP360 community. From #OP360Cares initiatives to our ongoing investment in talent development, we remain committed to creating A Better Way for our people, partners, and communities. We're honored by this recognition and inspired to continue expanding our positive impact in Colombia and beyond.
