

Pro Athletes & Influencers Unite for the 3rd Annual Pro Player Prayer Project Luncheon in Indianapolis

Event Focuses on Faith, Community, and Mental Health Awareness – December 1, 2025

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, UNITED STATES, November 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Pro Player Prayer Project (P4) will host its 3rd Annual Community

I am proud to have co-founded this meaningful initiative to gather pro athletes and influencers to experience the power of collective prayer and emphasize the importance of Mental Health & Wellness.”

Darrin Gray

Luncheon on Monday, December 1, 2025, bringing together former NFL players, community influencers, authors, speakers, and faith leaders for a powerful afternoon of prayer, connection, and mental-health awareness.

Held at the historic Kountry Kitchen Banquet Hall in Indianapolis, this annual event provides a unique platform where athletes and community members gather to share stories of perseverance, faith, and wellness—creating space for authentic conversations around mental health and emotional resilience.

The 2025 program will highlight personal testimonies, guided prayer, and encouraging messages designed to uplift individuals and strengthen community ties.
