

Spartanburg Community College Celebrates Thanksgiving by Honoring Record-Breaking Impact and Regional Leadership

Spartanburg Community College (SCC) extends heartfelt gratitude to the students, faculty, staff, and community partners who have made this year a historic one.

SPARTANBURG, SC, UNITED STATES, November 24, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- As Thanksgiving approaches, Spartanburg Community College (SCC) extends heartfelt gratitude to the students, faculty, staff, and community partners who have made this year a historic one.

SCC is proud to announce a record-breaking milestone for Fall 2025 of more than 7,000 academic students enrolled—the highest in the College’s history, and an additional 867 students served through noncredit and customized training programs. This achievement reflects the collective spirit and dedication that define the SCC family and our region.

We celebrate the students, faculty, staff, and community partners who make SCC a powerful force for education and workforce development.”

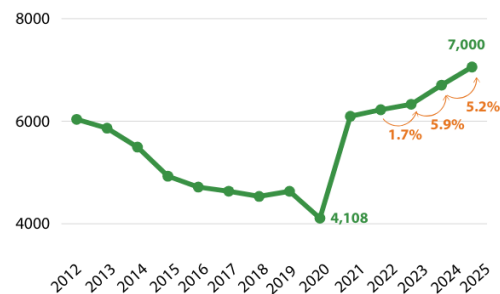

Dr. Michael Mikota

A Season of Thanks and Growth

This Thanksgiving, SCC celebrates not only its remarkable enrollment growth but also the lasting impact it continues to make as the leader in higher education for the upstate region of South Carolina. Since 2020, SCC’s total academic enrollment has grown more than 70%, underscoring an expanding role in meeting the region’s educational and workforce needs.

ENROLLMENT GROWTH

FALL HEADCOUNT

- Headcount has risen by 70.4% since 2020 from 4,108 to 7,000 students.
- The College has averaged 4.0% YOY growth over the last 3 years.

SCC Enrollment Growth

Over the last three years, significant focus and investments in student retention and completion initiatives have resulted in a 38% increase in the number of graduates - expanding to 1,080 graduates in 2024-2025. This jump is a testament to the College's commitment to student success and opportunity.

Gratitude for Community Partnerships

SCC's Annual Report, now available at myscc.info/AnnualReport, highlights how the College is aligning programs with workforce demands, expanding student pathways, and driving economic growth across South Carolina.

Dr. Mikota with SCC Students

SCC President, Dr. Michael Mikota, shared, "Thanksgiving is a time to reflect on the remarkable progress we've made together. We celebrate the students, faculty, staff, and community partners who make Spartanburg Community College a powerful force for education and workforce development. These milestones demonstrate how our successes today set the foundation for the lasting impact we are creating for South Carolina."

Looking Ahead

With continued momentum from this record-setting year, SCC anticipates ongoing growth and success in the coming year, with a continued impact on the community and the upstate region. As we gather with loved ones this Thanksgiving, SCC remains committed to expanding opportunity, fostering innovation, and serving as the region's leader in higher education.

For more information, visit SCCSC.edu.

Savanna Schultz
Spartanburg Community College
james@scsc.edu

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/869925231>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.