The book highlights significant moments and characters from both the Old and New Testaments, reimagined through poetic storytelling that captures the emotion, lessons, and spiritual truths embedded in the Word of God.

Poetry That Reflects the Entire Journey of Scripture

One of the book's most distinctive qualities is its comprehensive approach. The collection takes readers on a poetic journey from the creation account in Genesis all the way to the prophetic visions of Revelation. Each poem reflects an aspect of God's faithfulness, wisdom, and love, allowing readers to engage with Scripture from a fresh and creative perspective.

Love intends to create a literary experience that resonates with readers on a personal level. Each piece is written to highlight not only the events of Scripture but the heart behind them, the encouragement, conviction, hope, and inspiration that biblical stories have offered throughout generations.
