"The Holiday Light Fight," a community contest presented by Pretty Properties in partnership with MBH Settlement Group. The festive competition celebrates the holiday spirit by encouraging Richmond residents to showcase their creative holiday light displays. The Holiday Light Fight invites homeowners throughout the Richmond area to submit photos of their holiday decorations for a chance to win a $250 cash prize and have $250 donated to their charity of choice. Whether displays are big, bright, beautiful, or delightfully tacky, all styles are welcome in this celebration of community and holiday cheer.

"The holidays are all about bringing communities together, and that's something we value deeply at Cavalier Moving."

Josh Wright

"The holidays are all about bringing communities together, and that's something we value deeply at Cavalier Moving,"

said Josh Wright, owner of Cavalier Moving. "We help families settle into their homes throughout the year, and there's something special about seeing those same homes light up with holiday spirit. We're thrilled to support Pretty Properties in creating this fun, festive competition that brings our Richmond community together."

How The Holiday Light Fight Works:

Richmond residents can participate in The Holiday Light Fight by following these simple steps:

1. Submit entries NOW through December 1st by scanning the QR code or visiting the contest website to nominate your own home or a neighbor's spectacular display

2. Top 10 homes selected on December 2nd - Pretty Properties will choose the most impressive displays from all submissions

3. Yard signs with QR codes will be placed at selected homes so neighbors and visitors can easily vote

4. Voting runs throughout December on social media and through QR codes at each featured home

5. Winner announced January 2nd - The home with the most votes wins the grand prize

The Grand Prize Package

The winning home will receive a generous prize package that includes:

- $250 cash prize for the homeowner
- $250 donation to the winner's charity of choice - spreading holiday generosity beyond the competition

This dual-prize structure reflects Cavalier Moving's commitment to both celebrating community members and supporting charitable causes that matter to Richmond residents.

Supporting Richmond's Holiday Traditions

Cavalier Moving's sponsorship of The Holiday Light Fight represents the company's ongoing commitment to enriching the Richmond community beyond professional moving services. The contest encourages neighborhood pride, friendly competition, and, most importantly, brings joy to residents of all ages during the holiday season.

"Holiday decorations transform neighborhoods into magical places," added Josh Wright. "Families drive around looking at lights, kids get excited, and communities come together. As a company that helps people make Richmond their home, we
