-- PRIME 1 STUDIO announces the start of pre-orders for a new diorama from the game "Horizon Forbidden West". Aloy vs. The Slitherfang joins the Ultimate Diorama Masterline series.

This diorama is based on the quest "Reach For The Stars" and depicts Aloy confronting the Slitherfang within ancient ruins. The scene presents Aloy in a battle stance as the Slitherfang coils around broken structures, capturing a key moment from the quest.

The Slitherfang figure features a coiled body rising to approximately 80 cm in height. Its mechanical design is expressed through layered armor, varied surface textures, and detailed internal structures. LED lighting is installed in the eyes and tail.

Aloy is sculpted with fine detail in her facial expression, outfit, and equipment, including her Death-Seeker's Shadow and Tenakth Vanquisher gear. The pose shows her drawing her bow, with braided hair flowing to match the
