

Brownsville, Tennessee Announces Full Day of Holiday Events on Saturday, December 6

BROWNSVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES,
November 26, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Brownsville is set to shine on Saturday, December 6, with a full day of holiday events for families, visitors and the entire community. From Christmas shopping and live music to parades and Santa appearances, Brownsville will be alive with the magic of the season. Activities and events will center around the historic Court Square and along Main Street.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6 EVENT SCHEDULE

10:00 AM – Downtown Holiday Shopping, Carriage Rides & Food Trucks

Kick off your day in downtown Brownsville as merchants open at 10 AM with unique holiday gifts, local goods, and seasonal specials. Enjoy carriage rides along charming historic streets and grab delicious bites from food trucks stationed throughout the area. It's the perfect start to a festive day of shopping and strolling.

12:00 – 5:00 PM – Uptown Alley Sessions

Enjoy your lunch or favorite tea or coffee in Uptown Alley for live music featuring The Pretty Weeds (12-1 PM) and Simply Leland (2-5 PM). Enjoy the murals, the Brownsville vibe, and a relaxed atmosphere. Perfect for recouping from a full morning of shopping and afternoon breaks.

3:00 PM – Children's Christmas Parade with Santa & Mrs. Claus

Santa arrives in the Brownsville Christmas Parade with an escort from the dedicated volunteers of the Haywood County Emergency Management Agency. You're invited to be a part of this tradition Saturday, December 6 at 6 pm.

Kids are invited to dress in fun holiday attire and bring their bikes, trikes, scooters, or motorized toys to join Santa in a joyful children's parade around the Haywood County Courthouse. Families may also choose to walk alongside Santa. Afterwards, Mrs. Claus will host a special Christmas Storytime on the steps of the Courthouse. Plus, all children will receive a free book courtesy of Haywood County Reading Railroad.

5:00 PM – Community Christmas Tree Lighting

Gather on the courthouse lawn for a cherished Brownsville tradition. The lighting ceremony features greetings from local mayors and recognition of this year's grand marshals. This heartfelt event captures the spirit and meaning of the season.

6:00 PM – A Blues & BBQ Christmas Parade

Presented by the Emergency Management Agency, this year's parade theme is "A Blues & BBQ Christmas." The annual parade brings music, lights, and the soul of Brownsville to the streets. With grand marshals who embody the spirit of service, leadership, and community pride, the celebration brings together generations for a vibrant mix of hometown charm, music, joy, and holiday magic.

With so many events in one day, Saturday, December 6 is the perfect time to experience Brownsville's music, food, traditions, and small-town holiday charm.
