The upcoming album will continue to showcase Heartsong's distinctive sound, blending blues-rooted rock, soul, funk, and insightful lyricism. The project aims to resonate with listeners while reinforcing his reputation for delivering powerful and heartfelt music.

In support of the new record, Heartsong is excited to announce that he will embark on a comprehensive live tour in 2026 throughout the US and beyond.

“The songs on this album come straight from my soul, and are deeply inspired by all of the wild, wonderful happenings of life. I can’t wait to share them with the world, especially through the live experience,” says Freedom Heartsong.

The album was co-produced and mastered by Alan Singer of the legendary West LA Studios. An original oil painting created by renowned Rome based Italian artist Camilla Ancilotto serves as the cover artwork.

Details concerning the track list, official release date, and initial 2026 tour dates will be shared with the public soon.
