Community Reaction: Holiday Discount Sparks Buzz on Reddit

Ahead of GoHighLevel's official announcement, members of the CRM and marketing tech community took to online forums to discuss whether a Black Friday or Cyber Monday promotion would be offered in 2025.

In a recent Reddit thread on r/CRMSoftware, users questioned the availability, with one commenter writing:

“Black Friday Week runs Nov 24, 2025 – Nov 30, 2025; Cyber-Week continues Dec 1 – Dec 7. The promotion gives 50% off for the first 3 months on all plans if you sign up during that window.”

The conversation emphasized the importance of trusting official sources:

“The deals they offer are normally posted right on their website, not on random pages.”

GoHighLevel’s campaign directly addresses this interest with clear terms and a verified sign-up page.
