

INKBIRD Launches Black Friday Event with Major Savings on Smart Thermometers

INKBIRD Black Friday sale runs until Dec 1. Features $100 off 4-Probe Wireless Thermometer and huge discounts on more cooking gear. All with free shipping.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES,
November 28, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- INKBIRD, a leader in precision temperature control technology, today announced the start of its annual Black Friday & Cyber Monday Sale, providing home chefs and culinary professionals with an opportunity to upgrade their cooking arsenal. The promotional event, running now through December 1 (PST), features significant price reductions across a curated selection of its most advanced wireless meat thermometers and cooking controllers.

This year's sale focuses on delivering both versatility and value, allowing customers to select the ideal tool for their specific needs, from backyard barbecues to sophisticated sous vide preparations.

Strategic Savings on Award-Winning Thermometers

The centerpiece of the sale includes deep discounts on multi-probe thermometers designed for flawless results. The 4-Probe Smart Meat Thermometer INT-14-BW, which allows for monitoring multiple proteins simultaneously, receives a standout $100 reduction. By applying code 14BWT at checkout from November 28 to December 1, customers can secure this advanced unit for $99.99.

For those seeking flexibility, the Meat Thermometer INT-12-BW, featuring both long and short probes, is available with a $60 discount using code 12BWOFF, bringing its price to $79.99. The Dual-Probe Multi-Sensor Wireless Thermometer INT-12E-BW is offered at a direct 29% discount,
