

ReAlign Web Design Unveils New Skål USA Website

Orlando-Based International Web Refresher Re-Launches Premier Travel and Tourism Website

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES,
December 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/

-- ReAlign Web Design, the Orlando-based international website refresher, has unveiled its redesign of the website for Skål USA, the premier professional organization for travel and tourism leaders in the United State. The site went live on November 26, 2025.

The logo for ReAlign Web Design features the word "REALIGN" in a large, bold, sans-serif font. The "RE" is in black, and the "ALIGN" is in green. Below "REALIGN" is the word "WEB" in black and "DESIGN" in green, both in a smaller, bold, sans-serif font. A small "SM" trademark symbol is located to the right of "ALIGN".

“Websites are today's calling card to the world, and we wanted Skål USA to have a state-of-the-art site, fully functional and developed with the latest designs to embrace AI and the expectations of Skål's members,” explained Creative Development Lead and General Manager, Dan Bradley. “Skål is not just a client, but an organization dear to our hearts. The camaraderie and industry relationships that Skål fosters around the world is unparalleled, and we were honored to take the Skål USA website to the next level, and grateful for the trust that the Board of Directors placed in our vision.”

“The redesign of the Skål USA website was our top priority in 2025,” said Mark Irgang, President of Skål USA. “ReAlign delivered a quality website that exceeded our expectations.”

“We are excited to welcome prospective Skål members to our new website in order to fully understand the significant role that Skål USA plays in today's travel and tourism world,” added John Stine, 2025 Executive Board Director for Skål USA.

ReAlign Web Design was created in 2018 to develop affordable website updates and hosting for new websites and aging sites needing a refresh. With over 300 sites in its portfolio, ReAlign provides affordable opportunities for companies and organizations of all sizes to design and/or refresh their digital calling card.
