

Portfolio.YVR Debuts Winter Issue with Iconic Media Expert Fiona Forbes & Celebration of BC Entrepreneurship

An issue led by Fiona Forbes that showcases the depth, talent, and determination of BC entrepreneurs building bold, future-focused companies across industries.

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, December 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Portfolio.YVR Business & Entrepreneurs Magazine proudly announces the release of its ninth issue, headlined by iconic Canadian TV host, producer, and media training expert Fiona Forbes, whose nearly three decades in broadcasting have shaped the landscape of Canadian media. With a distinguished career built on sharp communication skills, quick thinking, and an enduring ability to connect with audiences, Fiona reflects the calibre of entrepreneurial leadership that defines this publication.

"Fiona has been shaping conversations in Canadian media for almost thirty years," says Helen Siwak, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher of Portfolio.YVR. "Her evolution, her voice, and her presence reflect the resilience and adaptability that define BC's most impactful leaders."

As Portfolio.YVR moves toward a monthly publishing schedule in 2026, the magazine remains committed to elevating entrepreneurs across BC. Its coverage spans the province's full business ecosystem, including marketing, communications, beauty, health, wellness, finance, music, filmmaking, photography, visual effects, real estate, technology, artificial intelligence, and the wider creative and industrial sectors.

This issue highlights ten outstanding entrepreneurs whose work continues to shape the province's business landscape. Fiona Forbes leads the edition with her extraordinary broadcast legacy and her continued role as a trusted media coach. Strategic consultant Vina Tsai, founder of VT Consulting Group, brings structure and clarity to organizations seeking grounded direction. Cybersecurity innovator Marko Sarunac of IncudoLABS Inc. continues to advance compliance-
