Today, celebrating 40 years in the Austin community, Keep Austin Beautiful has released its Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2025.

Also this year, Keep Austin Beautiful's environmental education team engaged 14,985 Austin youth in recycling, composting, and reducing their waste, inspiring them to become the next generation of environmental leaders.

Together, we're shaping the next 40 years of a cleaner, greener, more connected community.”

Rodney Ahart, CEO

“As we release our 40th Anniversary Annual Report, we're celebrating a community that continues to show up for Greater Austin,” says Rodney Ahart, CEO Keep Austin Beautiful. “Over four decades, more than 647,000 volunteers have contributed nearly two million service hours and removed 2,000 tons of litter to keep our city clean and beautiful—from Montopolis to Mueller, Dove Springs to the Domain, and every neighborhood in between. I am grateful to every volunteer, partner, sponsor, and board and staff member who makes this work possible. Together, we're shaping the next 40 years of a cleaner, greener, more connected community.”
