

Nexterra Environmental Names Dan Oehler as Chief Executive Officer

Nexterra Environmental, a value-added distributor of Erosion Control & Stormwater Management solutions announces the appointment of Dan Oehler as CEO.

CINCINNATI, OH, UNITED STATES, December 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nexterra Environmental, a multi-regional value-added distributor of Erosion Control & Stormwater Management solutions serving the infrastructure, energy, commercial and residential development sectors, is pleased to announce the appointment of Dan Oehler as Chief Executive Officer. Oehler brings a proven track record of building high-performing teams and driving sustainable growth, positioning Nexterra for its next phase of expansion and innovation.

Dan Oehler, Chief Executive Officer

As part of this strategic evolution, Nexterra has launched a newly redesigned website at nexterraenvironmental.com. The site highlights the company's technical expertise, comprehensive product and service offerings, successful case studies, and its collaborative, acquisition-friendly approach. The digital refresh marks the first step in a broader initiative to elevate Nexterra's visibility and impact in key environmental markets.

Nexterra remains deeply committed to a culture defined by customer-centricity, empowered associates, cutting-edge technology, and an unwavering focus on safety. Grounded in local engagement, respect for people, and operational excellence, this culture will continue to serve as the foundation for the company's long-term, strategic growth.

"Our mission is clear," said Oehler. "We're building Nexterra into a national platform through strategic organic growth and thoughtful partnerships and acquisitions. Our culture — centered on safety, local empowerment, and customer-first thinking — will guide how we grow and integrate new businesses. Through our 'Lite Integrations' approach, we'll expand our footprint in a deliberate, people-focused way that delivers greater value to our clients and partners while setting a new standard in environmental services."

Nexterra's growth strategy focuses on three high-priority areas:

- Erosion Control: Delivering advanced solutions to protect natural resources and infrastructure.
- Storm Water Management: Implementing sustainable systems to manage and protect water quality.
- Private Equity Partnerships: Backed by Goldner Hawn, Nexterra is accelerating acquisitions and market expansion to become the industry's premier Partner of Choice.

With a strong foundation and clear vision, Nexterra Environmental is poised to become a trusted partner across the environmental services landscape.
