Our partnership with NetNow is another exciting step toward strengthening the construction credit community and helping our clients get paid for the work they do.”

Alec Papesch, Director of Strategic Partnerships at NCS Credit

leading platform helping distributors and suppliers accelerate collections and optimize accounts receivable performance, is excited to announce a strategic partnership with NCS Credit, the industry’s leading provider of construction notice, waiver, and mechanic’s lien services with a comprehensive project management platform.

By connecting platforms and synchronizing key project data, the integration enables faster decision-making, more efficient risk analysis, and stronger visibility across all stages of a construction project lifecycle.

NCS Credit’s robust project management capabilities integrate directly into NetNow and can be managed through the NCS Platform. It allows users to initiate notices, track lien waiver activity, and stay ahead of critical project milestones, all from within their existing workflow. The result is a streamlined, user-friendly experience that helps suppliers, contractors, and distributors protect payment rights while keeping projects moving smoothly.

“Partnerships are at the forefront of NCS Credit’s strategy to ensure our clients have access to the industry’s best technology, all while achieving a seamless implementation into their existing NCS workflows,” said Alec Papesch, Director of Strategic Partnerships at NCS Credit. “Our partnership with NetNow is another exciting step toward strengthening the construction credit community and helping our clients get paid for the work they do.”

Nauman Hafeez, CEO of NetNow, agrees with Alec. “We’re excited to partner with NCS Credit. This collaboration strengthens our shared commitment to supporting Credit teams across the industry and creates new opportunities to deliver meaningful value to the businesses we serve.”

The integration will be available to NetNow users upon request. Clients interested in enabling NCS Credit's services are encouraged to contact their account representative.
