

Judy Yates Opens Waco Office to Expand Tax Strategy and Preparation Services

Yates is known for tackling complex returns, including multi-state filings and challenging tax situations.

WACO, TX, UNITED STATES, January 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Judy Yates today announced the opening of a new office in Waco to serve individuals and businesses with year-end tax strategy, preparation, and wealth-building guidance. The location will be led by veteran tax professional Judy Yates, who brings more than 50 years of experience helping clients navigate changing tax laws and optimize legally available deductions.

The Waco office arrives as taxpayers prepare for year-end decisions that can significantly impact 2025 filings. Clients will receive guidance on understanding the latest tax law updates, avoiding critical mistakes, maximizing deductions and credits, and maintaining complete documentation. In addition to in-person support, the firm serves clients nationally with no geographic limitations.

"She works with you to find all the legitimate deductions and plans for next year, too," said Anna Brooks. "Judy focuses on the details so you don't leave money on the table."

Yates is known for tackling complex returns, including multi-state filings and challenging tax situations. Her approach emphasizes proactive planning—especially before December 31—so clients can make informed decisions about income timing, deductions, entity structure, and recordkeeping. Clients are encouraged to keep thorough receipts and documentation to substantiate deductions and support a smooth filing season.

"Judy makes the tax law understandable. She speaks both tax and English," said Lindsey Cabrera. "She translates complex rules into clear steps businesses and families can actually use."
