

Caresify Home Care Marks More Than a Decade of Providing IDD In-Home and Community Support Services

Trusted Provider Highlights Longstanding Commitment to Person-Centered Support for Individuals With Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, December 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Caresify Home Care is marking more than 10 years of delivering high-quality (IDD) in-home support services and community-based support for individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD). As a trusted IDD home care provider, Caresify continues to support individuals and families with person-centered care that promotes independence, skill-building and meaningful daily engagement.

Caresify's in-home disability assistance model focuses on empowering each individual to build and strengthen daily living skills, participate in community activities and pursue long-term personal goals. Services include personal care assistance, communication and life-skills development, safety and behavior-awareness support, community integration and respite services for families.

"For over a decade, our commitment to the IDD community has remained consistent and unwavering,” said Sheriff Adewale, founder of Caresify Home Care. “This work has never been just a service—it is a mission. We are honored to provide families with dependable, person-centered disability support that upholds dignity, respect and individual choice.”

Caresify develops individualized plans in collaboration with each person and their support network. The organization’s long-term success is rooted in its focus on life skills training for people with IDD, daily routine support, self-advocacy development and safe participation in home and community life. The team’s training standards and approach reflect best practices in community-based IDD services throughout Pennsylvania and surrounding regions.

“We understand the trust families place in us,” said Angel Bell, director of Caresify Home Care. “Our team is deeply committed to delivering reliable, compassionate support that helps each individual grow and thrive. From daily living support for individuals with disabilities to community participation support, every aspect of our care is designed to encourage progress and independence.”

Caresify continues to invest in quality assurance, caregiver education and evidence-based care practices to meet the evolving needs of individuals with IDD. As the demand for trusted IDD home care agencies increases, Caresify remains focused on maintaining the highest standards of in-home disability assistance and person-centered IDD services.
