

Wirtz Law Lemon Law Attorneys Conclude Year With $70 Million Milestone in Client Recoveries

San Diego, California – Wirtz Law Lemon Law Attorneys, a San Diego-based consumer protection law firm, has announced it is concluding the year with a significant milestone: more than $70 million recovered on behalf of clients in cases involving California's lemon law. This cumulative total reflects years of litigation and advocacy on behalf of California consumers who have faced persistent defects with their vehicles.

The milestone comes amid steady consumer demand for legal recourse under California's Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act, commonly referred to as the lemon law. The law provides protections for individuals who purchase or lease vehicles that repeatedly fail to meet reliability and safety standards. Attorneys at Wirtz Law APC say their consistent casework and vigilance in tracking legal developments have played a key role in achieving this record amount for clients.

"In each case, our primary objective is to ensure consumers receive the protection and remedies guaranteed by law," said Richard Wirtz, managing attorney at Wirtz Law APC. "This total is a reflection of the firm's ongoing commitment to helping clients navigate the challenges of repeated auto defects and warranty disputes."

Lemon law attorneys at Wirtz Law note that regular legislative and regulatory updates are integral to the firm's approach. Legal teams routinely review court decisions, statutory amendments, and regulatory guidance to ensure clients are advised on the most current legal protections and strategies. This commitment to staying informed, the firm says, has contributed to both the volume and success of recent cases.

"In a legal environment that is constantly evolving, it's essential to remain informed and prepared," Wirtz said. "Our team prioritizes continuing education and internal discussion so that we are ready to advocate effectively as new regulations and case law emerge."

Industry observers report that lemon law claims in California have increased in tandem with heightened consumer awareness and ongoing challenges within the automotive sector, including supply chain delays and a rise in vehicle recalls. Wirtz Law APC's $70 million achievement underscores the continuing demand for representation and guidance in resolving disputes over defective vehicles.

As the year concludes, Wirtz Law APC maintains its focus on protecting consumers' rights under California's lemon law, ensuring that individuals have access to remedies and representation when facing persistent vehicle defects. The firm's achievement marks not just a financial milestone, but a continued commitment to serving consumers throughout California.

Wirtz Law has tried more cases to jury verdict in some years than most attorneys attempt in a career. Over the past several years, Wirtz Law has recovered millions for California consumers
