

Miss Black International Ambassador Announces Belize as 2026 Host Country and Appoints New Executive Director

MBIA unveils host country for 2026 pageant and introduces new leadership to guide global initiatives

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, December 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Miss Black International Ambassador Organization (MBIA) has officially selected Belize as the host country for the 2026 Miss Black International Ambassador Pageant, marking one of the organization's most culturally immersive international experiences to date.

MBIA also announces the appointment of author, empowerment leader, CEO, and reigning Ms. Black Globe Belize

Antina Campbell as its new Executive Director. Campbell will oversee strategic direction, international delegate engagement, and program development for the upcoming global pageant cycle.

"It is an honor to step into this role at such a pivotal moment for MBIA," said Campbell. "As the current Ms. Black Globe Belize, I've seen firsthand the impact of global sisterhood. I look forward to elevating our mission, strengthening our community, and expanding opportunities for women of the African diaspora."

MBIA leadership also expressed strong confidence in Campbell's vision.

"Antina brings a powerful blend of leadership and cultural insight to MBIA," said Patrice Harrison, Founder of MBIA. "Her experience, advocacy, and Belizean representation position her perfectly to guide MBIA into its next chapter."

Belize City waterfront, the newly announced host location for the 2026 Miss Black International Ambassador Pageant.

Global Virtual Informational Session - December 13

MBIA will host a virtual global informational session on December 13 at 10:00 AM CST for women interested in becoming a part of the 2026 pageant cycle. Registration is required.

The session will highlight:

- Introduction of MBIA's new leadership
- Vision and goals for the 2026 pageant
- Exclusive details about the Belize experience
- Application timeline and next steps
- Upcoming organizational enhancements

Date: December 13, 2025

Time: 10:00 AM CST

Format: Virtual - Registration Required

Registration: [\[Link\]](#)

About Antina Cambell

Antina Campbell is an author, global empowerment leader, and member of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women – LA Chapter and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. – Culver City Alumnae Chapter. She is the reigning Ms. Black Globe Belize, representing Belize internationally through cultural advocacy and women-centered initiatives. Campbell is the Founder of The S.W.A.E. Foundation and Trio Diamond Productions, leading global programs in healing, education, and community transformation. Her empowerment brand, Hey Sis! I Got You!™, spans a book, podcast, fashion line, and international wellness programs for women.

About MBIA

The Miss Black International Ambassador Organization is a global movement celebrating the leadership, cultural influence, and community impact of women of color. Through education, mentorship, services, initiatives, and its Ambassadors of Change Foundation, MBIA cultivates advocates and changemakers committed to purposeful and transformative leadership.

Jazmine Graham

Miss Black International Ambassador Organization

+1 323-533-4809

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Instagram

Facebook

YouTube

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/872608769>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.