

Antillus Stone Gains Momentum Among Mob Fiction Readers as Multilingual Editions Expand Global Reach

Crime series debut captures renewed interest across international audiences seeking character-driven organized crime drama

SAN DIEGO , CA, UNITED STATES, December 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Antillus Stone, the crime-series debut novel by author Eric Jones, is gaining traction among readers of mob and organized crime fiction as interest in character-centered thrillers continues to rise. Known for its blend of emotional depth, underworld intrigue, and cinematic pacing, the novel has begun drawing a broadened readership fueled in part by its availability in four languages and the growing visibility of modern mob literature.

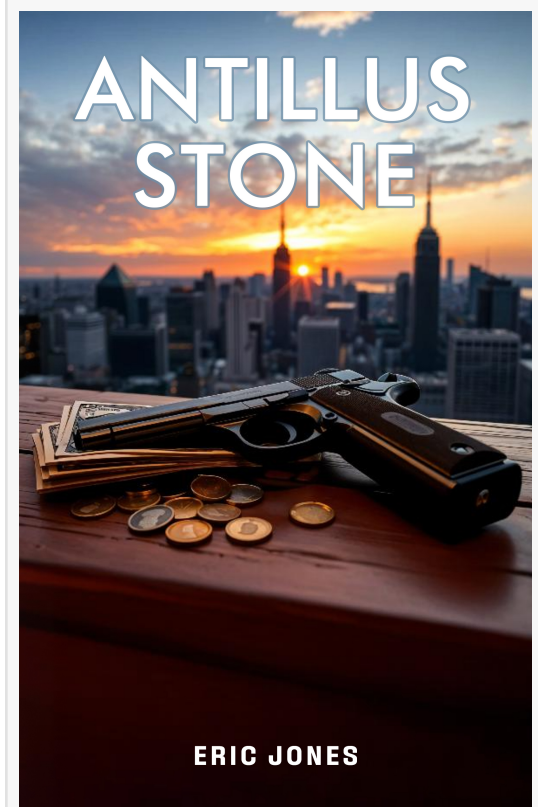

Antillus Stone follows Jake Stone, a man pulled into the Italian underworld after a chance encounter with the woman he once loved. Balancing loyalty, conflict, and survival, the story delivers a contemporary take on a classic genre while offering a fresh lens on themes that continue to resonate with global audiences. As multilingual editions expand access, the novel is steadily reaching readers across regions where crime fiction enjoys a dedicated following.
